
The Quiet Lamp Presents
The King Who Came for Everyone
The Story of Jesus for Little Hearts
Written by Michael Baker
In association with The Quiet Lamp

God's Wonderful Promise
Long before Jesus was born, God promised to send someone very special.
He would be a Saviour and a King.

A King Is Coming

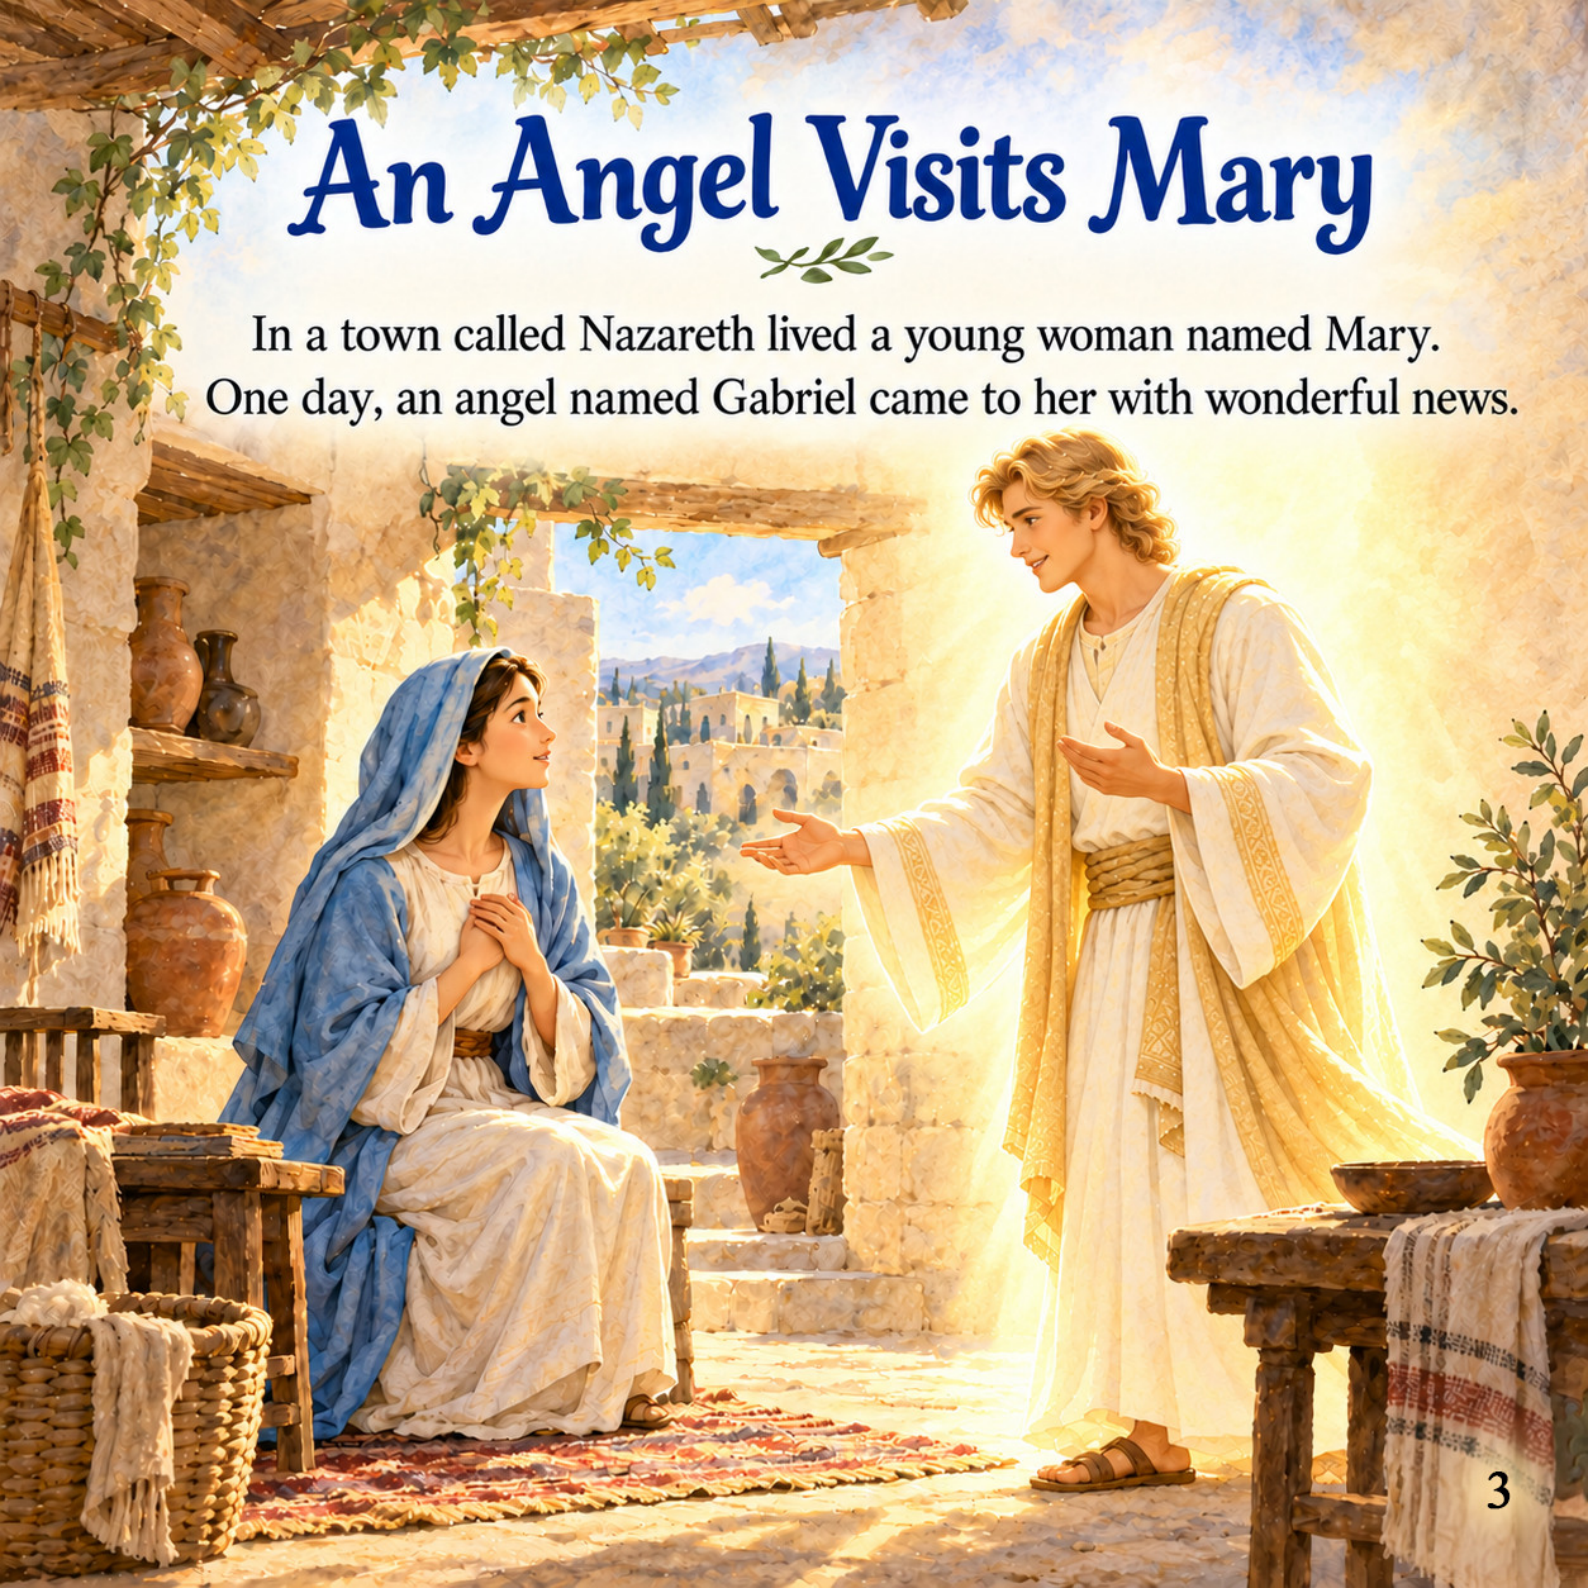

This King would bring peace and goodness.

His kingdom would last forever.

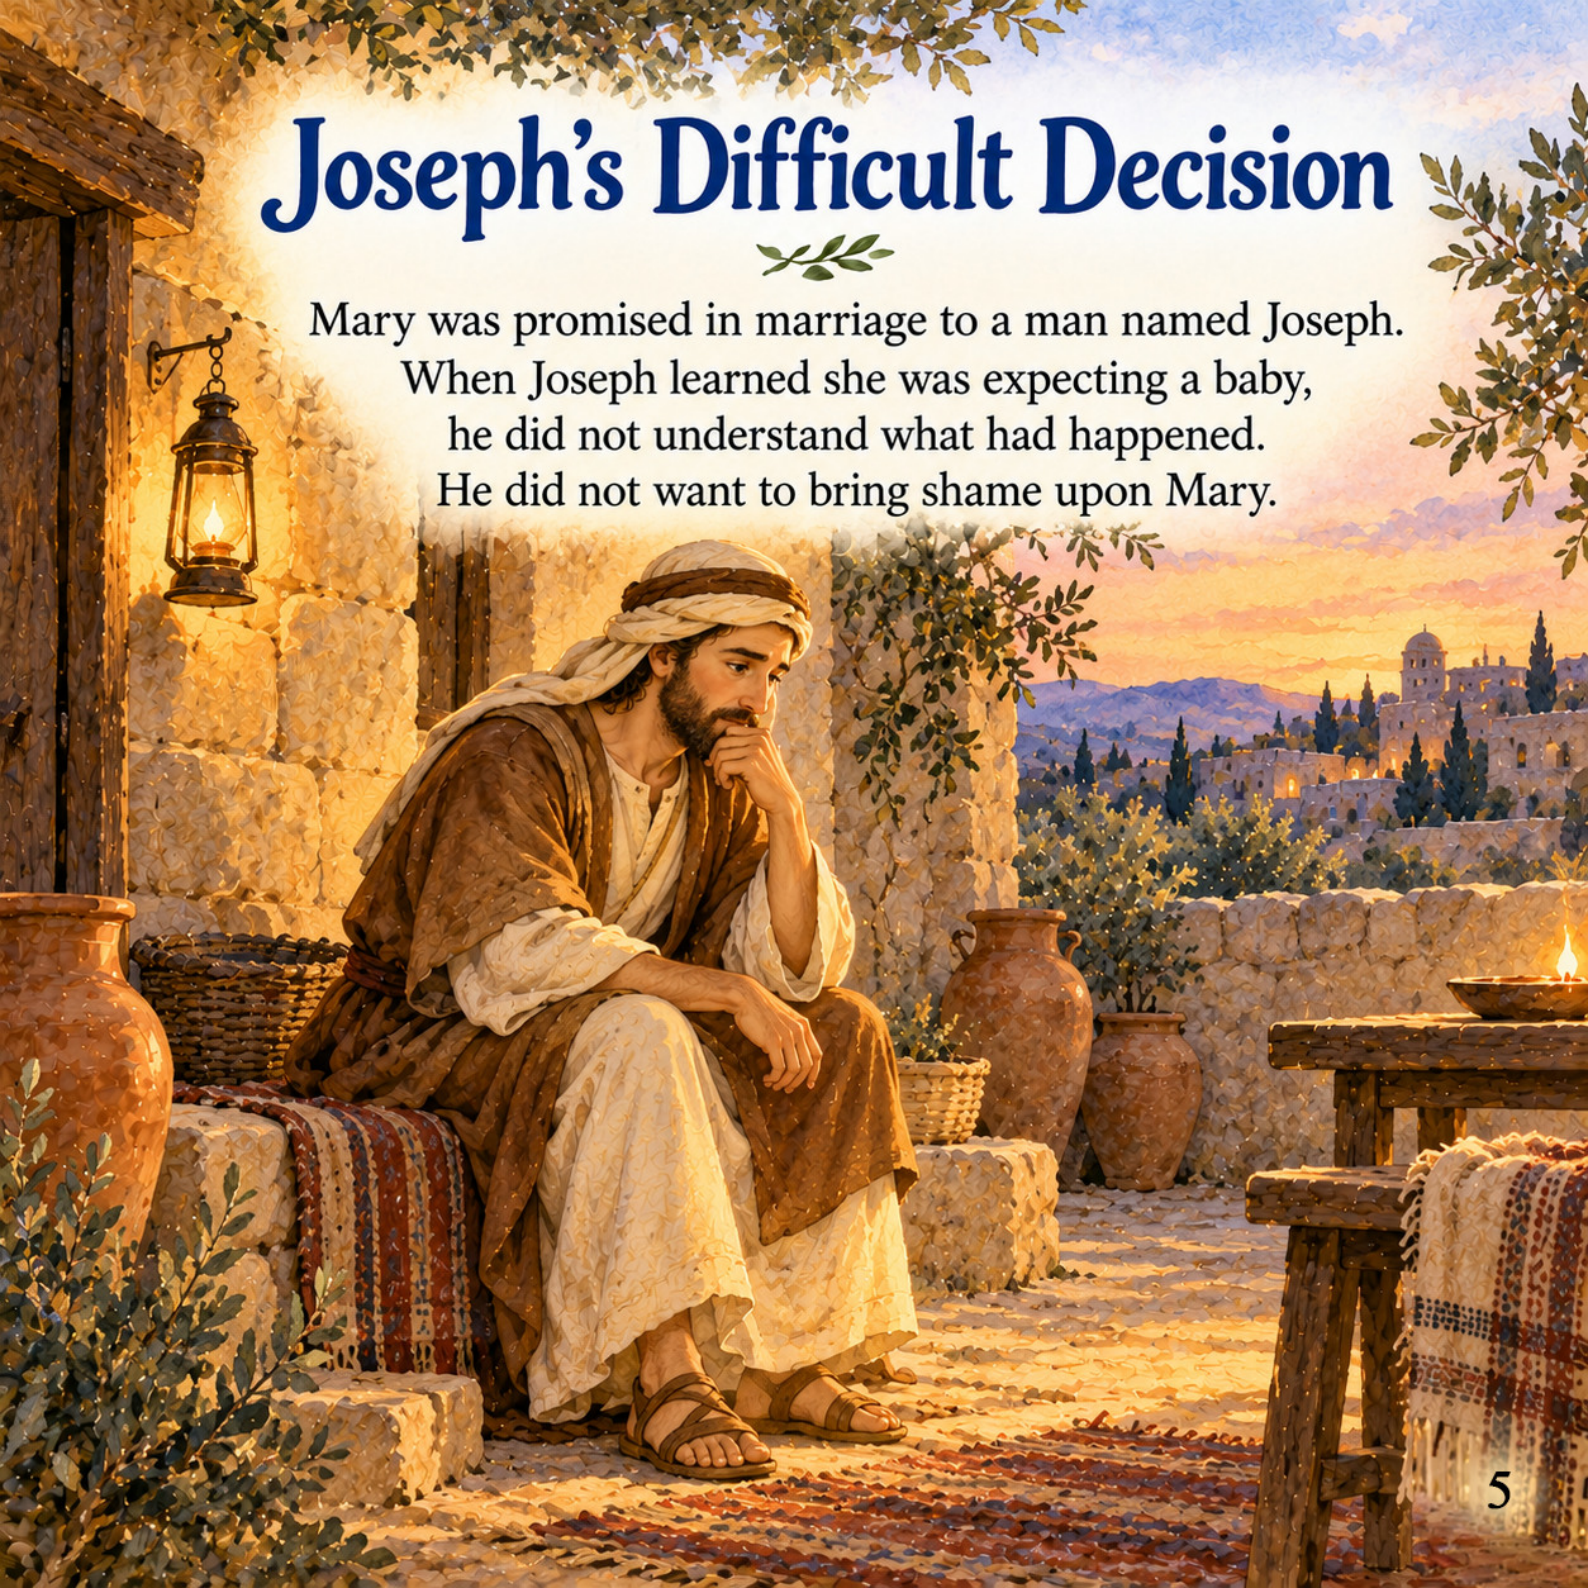

An Angel Visits Mary

In a town called Nazareth lived a young woman named Mary.
One day, an angel named Gabriel came to her with wonderful news.

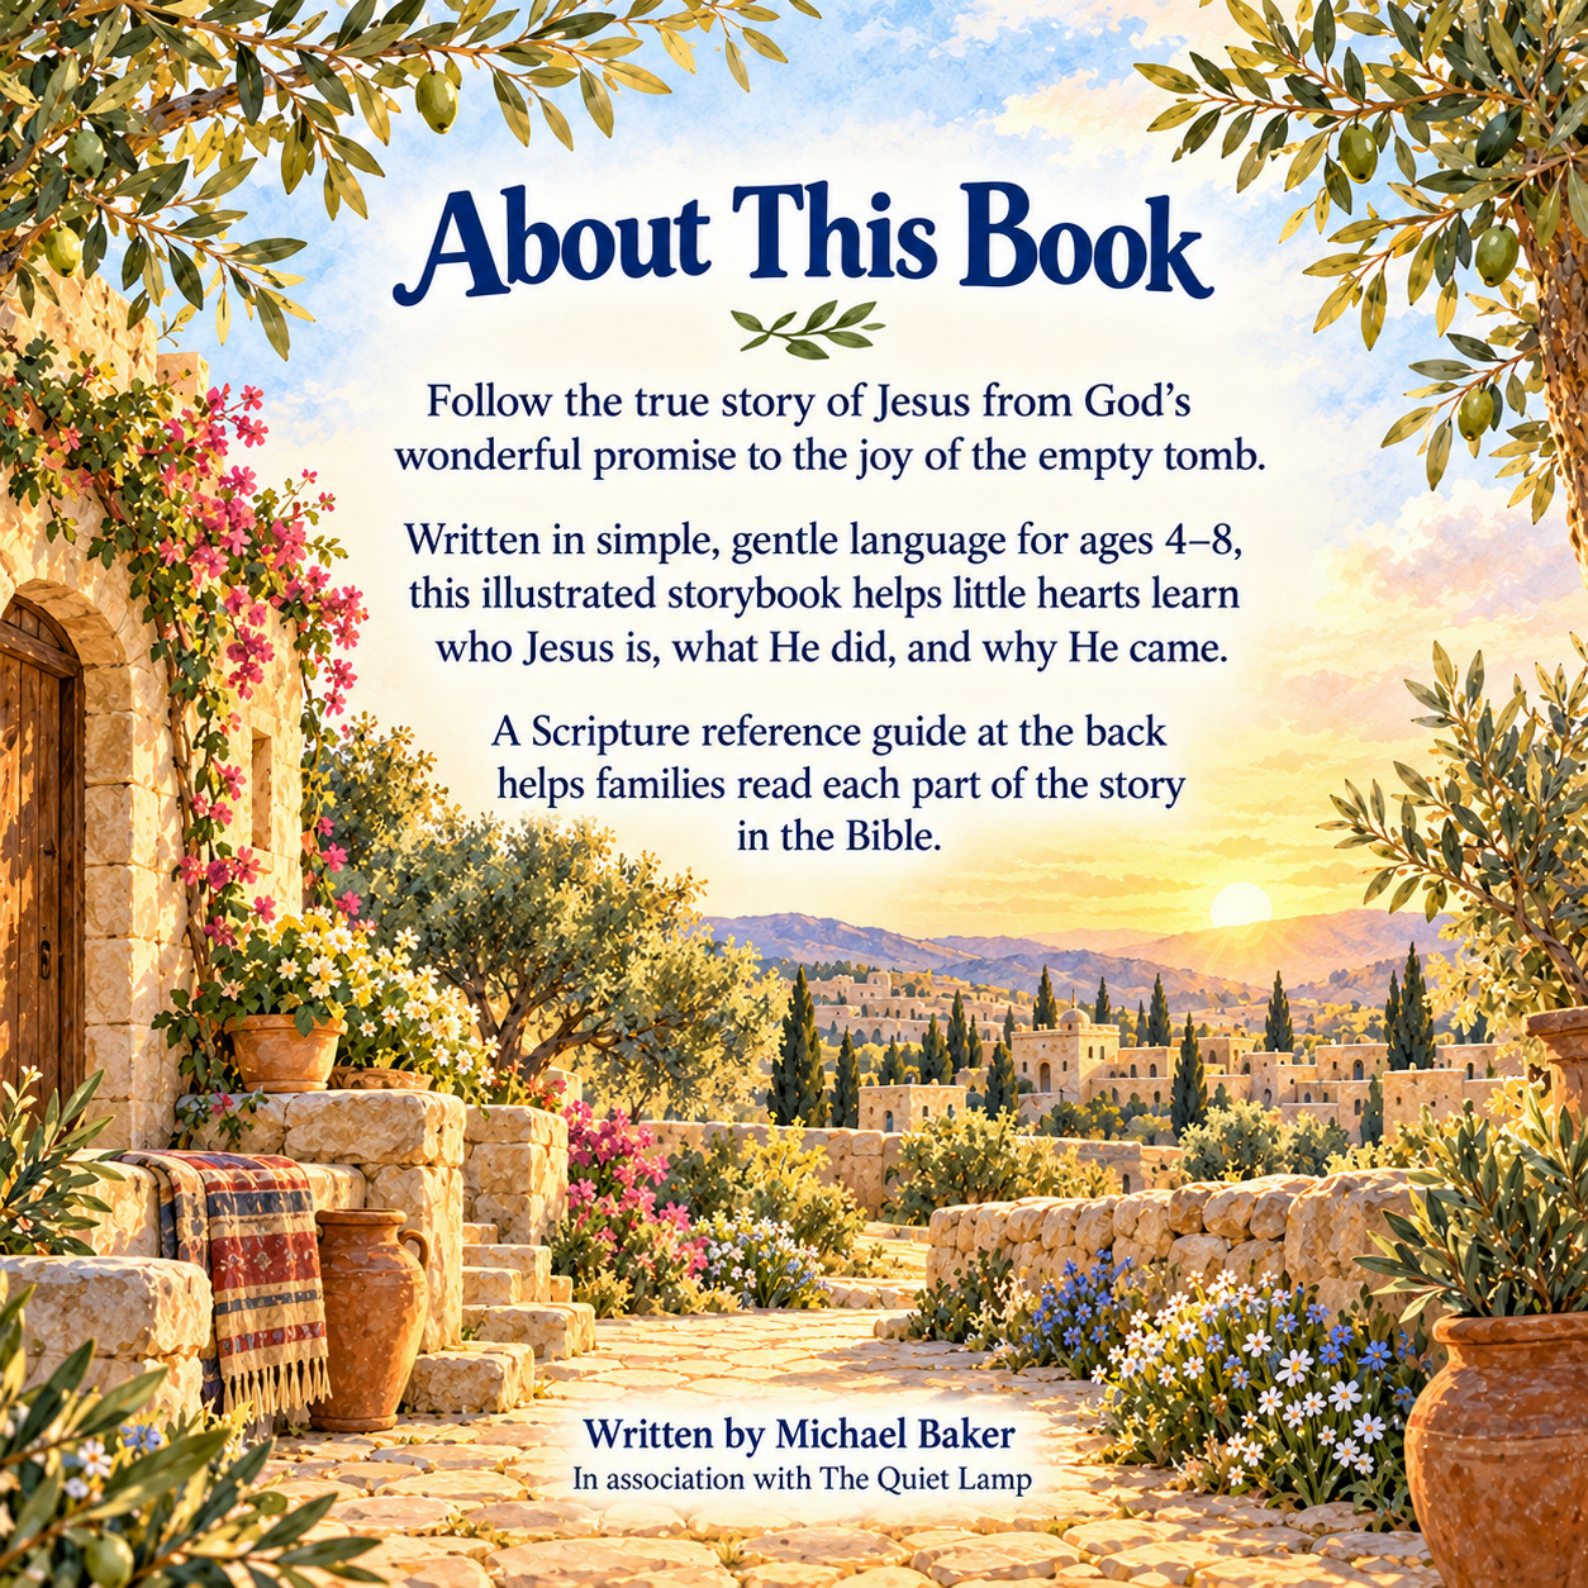

Mary's Wonderful News
Mary would have a baby boy, and His name would be Jesus.
He would be called the Son of God.
Mary believed what God had told her.

Joseph's Difficult Decision

Mary was promised in marriage to a man named Joseph.
When Joseph learned she was expecting a baby,
he did not understand what had happened.
He did not want to bring shame upon Mary.

About This Book
Follow the true story of Jesus from God's wonderful promise to the joy of the empty tomb.
Written in simple, gentle language for ages 4–8, this illustrated storybook helps little hearts learn who Jesus is, what He did, and why He came.
A Scripture reference guide at the back helps families read each part of the story in the Bible.
Written by Michael Baker
In association with The Quiet Lamp